HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE town of Westborough was incorporated Nov. 19th, 1717. A meeting house was at once commenced in what was then the centre of the town territory, near Willow Park, and was completed in 1722. In May of the following year the town began to look about for a minister of its own, and a year and a half later, on the 28th of October, 1724, a Church of thirteen members was organized, and Mr. Ebenezer Parkman, of Boston, was ordained as pastor of the Church and minister of the town.

Three years later, on the 12th of October, John Fay and Isaac Tomlin were chosen the first deacons.

The growth of the Church for nearly twenty years following was steady and quiet. In 1740 began the great revival movement, under the preaching of Whitefield and his associates, the influence of which was felt here. Whitefield did not preach in Westboro', although he came to Marlboro' about the middle of October, 1740. Jonathan Edwards preached in Mr. Parkman's pulpit on the second of February, and again the twentieth of October, 1742, with marked effect. And, with less excitement than in some neighboring towns, Westboro' was powerfully moved in the great revival.

The growth of the town had been such that by this time a division of territory seemed imperative. Originally, what is now Northboro' was included in this town: this, in 1744, was made a separate precinct, though it did not become an incorporated town until 1766.

In May, 1746, some of the brethren of this Church were dismissed, for the purpose of organizing a church in the second precinct; and forthwith the first precinct began to consider the question of removing its meeting house to a more central location. In 1748 work was begun on a new house, near the present junction of Main street with the railroad, and the first service was held there on the 3d of September, 1749. This building is, at the present writing, still standing, near its original location, and is commonly known as the "Old Arcade." In this house the town worshiped until 1834.

The first change in the form of the Sabbath service was made on the 18th of September, 1748, when for the first time the Scriptures were read from the pulpit. The first missionary contribution was made in the midst of the financial straits of the Revolution, on the 22d of September, 1776, "for the support and encouragement of missionaries to Annamabo, in Africa."

The first intimations of a choir appear in 1778, but until 1804 the hymns were still "lined out" by the deacons; and it is somewhat remarkable that, only four years later, music had made so much advance that an organ was introduced as an experiment, and, after trial, was retained.

Rev. Ebenezer Parkman died Dec. 9th, 1782, aged nearly 80 years, having been pastor of the Church fifty-eight years.

For six years the Church obtained no pastor; but on the 14th of January, 1789, Mr. John Robinson was ordained over them. In 1801, Mr. Samuel Parkman, of Boston, a son of the old pastor, presented the town with a bell, and a belfry was added to the plain, square church. In 1807 Mr. Robinson was dismissed, after sixteen years of service.

On the 26th of October, 1808, Mr. Elisha Rockwood was ordained pastor.

During his pastorate, in 1816, a few young ladies, amid considerable opposition from the leading men in the Church, organized the first Sunday School in town. In 1817, a communion service was imported from England, consisting of a pair of flagons and ten quart cups, which are still in use by the Church. In 1820 the first printed creed of the Church was issued, the custom of reading "relations" having been given up somewhat earlier. The years 1822 and 1823 were marked by revivals, in which eighty-seven were gathered into the Church. The next year these young converts presented the Church with two silver baskets for the communion service; and in 1829 two silver platters were purchased, making the complete set, as in use today. The year 1830 was also a year of revival, and of large additions to the Church.

In 1827 the first temperance agitation arose, and the Church passed resolutions limiting their indulgence in ardent spirits.

About 1830 a difference of sentiment in regard to questions of the day began to be apparent, and in 1833 some steps were taken toward a separation between the Unitarian and Trinitarian parties. In 1834, upon advice of a Council, the Church voted to separate from the Society, and a new society was organized, called the Evangelical Society, with which it joined itself. The old Society became afterwards the nucleus of a Unitarian Church, and the new Society, with the old Church, proceeded at once to erect a new meeting house upon the present site. It was dedicated December 17th, 1834.

This year saw the beginning of the Sabbath School concert, which was held on the second Monday of each month. The monthly concert, in behalf of missions, was instituted thirteen years earlier.

On the eleventh of March, 1835, Rev. Elisha Rockwood was dismissed, after a greatly honored pastorate of twenty-six and a half years.

On the third of February, 1836, Rev. Barnabas Phinney was installed pastor, and the beginning of his pastorate saw a revival which gathered into the Church more than eighty converts. But in the following October, under the gravest charges of immorality, he was, by a Council, dismissed from his pastorate, and deposed from the ministry.

In the following December Rev. Charles B. Kittredge was called, and on the eighth of February, 1837, he was installed. During the year that followed 47 were added to the Church, 35 of them on profession of their faith. Shortly afterward the important work of preparing a Church Manual, with a revised creed, and a full list of members of the Church from the beginning, was undertaken, and the Manual was published in 1842. Mr. Kittredge was pastor nearly nine years, and was dismissed Oct. 1st, 1845.

After an interval of two years, Rev. Henry N. Beers was installed on the 13th of October, 1847. His brief pastorate terminated on the 28th of May, 1849.

In August following, Rev. Daniel R. Cady was called, and on the fifth of December assumed the pastorate. A strong religious interest marked the following year, and 79 members were received into the Church. Mr. Cady remained pastor six years, when ill-health, which had for a long time burdened him, compelled him to resign. He was dismissed on the sixth of February, 1856.

Almost immediately Rev. Luther H. Sheldon was called to the vacant pastorate, and installed on the twentieth of March, 1856.

In 1860 the communion service was changed from the interval between services, to the time of the regular afternoon service.

Mr. Sheldon was dismissed on the third of April, 1867, after a pastorate of eleven years.

In December of the same year Rev. Artemas Dean was installed in the pastorate.

In 1868 a new Manual was issued, containing a list of names supplementary to that of 1842.

In May, 1869, the meeting house was closed for extensive repairs and remodelling, and in the following February it was re-dedicated in its present form.

On the nineteenth of October, 1869, Mr. Dean was dismissed from the pastorate.

After nearly two years interim, Rev. H. P. DeForest was installed pastor, on the tenth of August, 1871. In the October following Mr. A. W. Smith left, by will, $2,000 towards the building of a parsonage, which was at once commenced on ground in the rear of the church, and completed in October, 1872.

In the summer of 1874 it was found necessary to print a new manual, and the Articles of Faith and the Form of Reception of members were revised, and adopted in the form contained in the following pages.

On the twenty-eighth of October, 1874, the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the church was observed, the exercises embodying a historical address, a dinner in the Town Hall, addresses from representatives of neighboring churches, and from three of the former pastors, and a reception in the evening.

The whole number of communicants received to the Church during its history is 1,701, divided as follows :

STANDING RULES.

I. OFFICERS.

1. The permanent officers of this Church shall be a Pastor and such a number of Deacons as the Church shall from time to time decide upon, the choice of the Church to be expressed by ballot. The Pastor, when present, shall be, ex officio, the moderator at all church meetings.

2. A Clerk shall be annually elected by ballot, whose duty it shall be to keep distinct and full minutes of all the business transactions of the Church ; a record of all receptions, dismissions and deaths of members ; of all baptisms, both of infants and adults ; of all non-resident members of this Church, with the length of time they have been absent ; and he shall make a full written report of all these matters at the annual meeting of the Church. He shall also act as Clerk of the Standing Committee ; he shall conduct the correspondence of the Church ; shall issue letters of dismissal and recommendation, in accordance with its rules ; shall have charge of its archives, and shall prepare and keep a proper catalogue and index of all its members.

3. A Treasurer shall be annually elected by ballot, who shall receive all money belonging to the Church, together with all its benevolent contributions, and see that the latter are immediately paid over to the appropriate agencies. He shall fully report the state of the treasury, with the receipts and expenditures, at the close of the year, and whenever else the Church shall require it.

4. A Standing Committee, to consist of the Pastor, Clerk, and five other members, shall be annually elected by ballot, who shall examine candidates for admission to the Church. They shall receive complaints and prepare for action in cases of discipline. It shall also be their duty to confer together, and with other members of the Church, respecting its interests and the measures promoting its welfare ; and perform such other service as the Church may from time to time direct. Meetings for examining candidates shall be open to all the members of the Church.

5. A Superintendent of the Sabbath School shall be annually elected by ballot, who shall nominate to the Church teachers, preside in all the exercises of the School, take a general oversight of all its interests and proceedings, and at the expiration of his term of office report fully to the Church its condition, wants and prospects. He may appoint such assistants as he deems necessary.

6. A Librarian shall be appointed to take charge of the Sabbath School library, the distribution and return of its books, and their preservation.

7. Two choristers shall be appointed annually, to lead the singing in the social meetings of the church.

8. When a vacancy shall occur in any office of the Church, the same may be filled at any regularly called meeting of the Church.

II. MEMBERSHIP.

1. Persons desiring to unite with this Church on profession of their faith, having been duly approved by the Standing Committee, and their names having been propounded two weeks, may be received by vote of the Church, in the manner prescribed in the form for the admission of members.

2. Members of other churches wishing to unite with this Church by letter of transfer, will be received by vote of the Church, after having been approved by the Standing Committee and propounded to the Church two weeks, on publicly entering into covenant with the Church.

3. It is expected that letters recommending persons for admission to this Church, will bear date within the year previous to their presentation: and no others will be received, unless satisfactory reasons are given for the delay.

4. Members of Evangelical churches in good standing with their several bodies, and coming to reside among us, are cordially invited to our communion and fellowship: and if of our denomination, are requested to obtain and present letters for admission to our Church at the earliest opportunity.

5. It is regarded as being the duty of members of this Church who remove from this place, to apply, by written request, for letters of dismissal and recommendation to some church in communion with us in the place where they are to reside, within one year after leaving us, or furnish satisfactory reasons for not doing so, together with satisfactory evidence of their exemplary Christian life: making report of themselves to this Church, in person or by letter, as often, at least, as once a year.

6. Letters of dismissal and recommendation given by this Church, must be addressed to some particular body of Christians, and shall be valid for one year only from their date ; and they shall be issued in the following form, substantially, viz. :

THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

7. If any member of this Church shall unite with any professedly Christian body not deemed by us Evangelical, he may be separated from us at the discretion of the Church.

8. If any member of this Church shall withdraw from our communion on account of his supposed unworthiness, or for any other reasons pertaining solely to himself, while guilty of no immorality or other unchristian conduct, bringing reproach on the cause of religion, and shall persist in his course after suitable efforts shall have been made to restore him, the Church may, at such time and in such manner as its interests and the interests of religion seem to require, separate him from this Church.

III. MEETINGS.

1. The annual meeting of this Church for the election of officers and the transaction of other business, shall be held on the first Friday in April; and before entering on the business the records of the last annual meeting shall be read.

2. The Church will also hold a stated meeting on the second Friday of every month.

3. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered on the first Sabbath in January, and on the first Sabbath of each following alternate month throughout the year; and there shall be a lecture preparatory on the Friday next preceding each administration of the Supper.

4. All meetings for worship or business except those held statedly on Sunday, shall be called by notice of time and place given from the pulpit during divine service on the Sunday next preceding.

5. Business may be transacted at any regularly called meeting, and a special business meeting may be called at any time when, in the opinion of the Pastor and Deacons, it shall be expedient, and shall be called on the written application to the Pastor, or in his absence, to one of the Deacons, of five members.

6. All members in good standing shall be entitled to vote at meetings. Ten members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

IV. INSTRUCTION.

1. The Church shall maintain a Sunday School upon its premises, and provide for the expenses of the same. It shall be required of those who teach in this school that they give credible evidence of piety, of a good understanding of the Bible, and of a substantial agreement with the Articles of Doctrine contained in this Manual.

2. The Church shall provide for the stated instruction of its young people and of its converts, in the doctrines which it believes, by the Pastor or some competent person.

V. BENEVOLENCE.

This Church will at its annual meeting for business decide, by vote, to what objects of Christian benevolence it will contribute during the year ensuing, and at what time and in what manner the contributions to each shall be made.

VI. DISCIPLINE.

1. Any member having cause of complaint against another, shall first seek reconciliation in the spirit of the Gospel, and shall proceed according to the rules laid down by our Lord in Matthew xviii: 15-17. If he fail to obtain satisfaction, he may bring the matter to the notice of the Standing Committee, or, by written complaint, to the Church.

2. In such a case, or in a case of public scandal, if the Church entertain the complaint, a time shall be appointed for a hearing of the case, and the offender summoned to be present. No member shall be deprived of church privileges except in an orderly manner, and after due notice from the Church.

VII. SUSPENSION AND AMENDMENT OF THE RULES.

The foregoing rules may, by vote of the Church, be suspended to meet special emergencies, and they may be revised and altered by vote taken after special notice has been given, the repeal or change having been proposed at a previous meeting.

ARTICLES OF DOCTRINE.

I.

OF THE SCRIPTURES.

THE Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are a record of a revelation of God made in old time to the world,<sup>1</sup> and were written by holy men of old, as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.<sup>2</sup> They are a perfect rule of faith and practice, able to make us wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Heb. i. 1, 2. <sup>2</sup> 2 Pet. i. 21. <sup>3</sup> 2 Tim. iii. 15-17.

OF GOD.

There is but one living and true God<sup>1</sup> revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;<sup>2</sup> the Creator, Preserver, and Governor of all things visible and invisible;<sup>3</sup> infinite in his nature,<sup>4</sup> and perfect in his character;<sup>5</sup> whose purposes and providence extend to all events;<sup>6</sup> and who rules over his intelligent creatures in righteousness, truth and love.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Deut. vi. 4; Ps. xc. 2. <sup>2</sup> Matt. xxviii. 19; 2 Cor. xiii. 14; John i. 1; Acts v. 3, 4. <sup>3</sup> Gen. i. 1; Col. i. 16; Acts xvii. 28; Ps. ciii. 19. <sup>4</sup> Rom. xi. 33; Heb. iv. 13; Mark x. 27. <sup>5</sup> Isa. vi. 3; Deut. xxxii. 4; Matt. v. 48; Matt. xix. 17. <sup>6</sup> Is. xlv. 10; Ps. cxxxix. 3; Matt. x. 29, 30. <sup>7</sup> Rev. xvi. 7; Exod. xxxiv. 6, 7; 1 John iv. 8, 9.

OF HUMAN SINFULNESS.

Our first parents became sinners by disobeying God;<sup>1</sup> and therefore, by natural inheritance, all men are inclined to sin, and of their own free will do sin,<sup>2</sup> and become justly subject to God's wrath and punishment.<sup>3</sup>

OF THE REDEMPTION BY CHRIST.

Because God loved the world,<sup>1</sup> Jesus Christ his only Son, who was in the beginning with God, and was God, became man,<sup>2</sup> and died for the sins of the whole world, according to the Scriptures.<sup>3</sup> He magnified the law of God, and made it honorable by his perfect obedience even unto death.<sup>4</sup> By him alone<sup>5</sup> we are reconciled unto God<sup>6</sup> and saved from sin,<sup>7</sup> if we repent of sin, believe on Christ,<sup>8</sup> and follow him.<sup>9</sup> Whosoever will may come unto Him;<sup>10</sup> and all who do come are drawn by the Father,<sup>11</sup> and chosen of God,<sup>12</sup> and are kept by his power through faith unto salvation.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>1</sup> John iii. 16. <sup>2</sup> Heb. ii. 16-18. <sup>3</sup> 1 Cor. xv. 3; 1 John ii. 2. <sup>4</sup> Phil. ii. 8; Rom. iii. 26. <sup>5</sup> Acts iv. 12. <sup>6</sup> 2 Cor. v. 19. <sup>7</sup> Matt. i. 21. <sup>8</sup> Acts xx. 21; John iii. 15. <sup>9</sup> John x. 27, 28. <sup>10</sup> Rev. xxii. 17; 1 Tim. ii. 4. <sup>11</sup> John vi. 44. <sup>12</sup> 2 Thess. ii. 13. <sup>13</sup> 1 Pet. i. 5.

OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

The Spirit of God is come to convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment.<sup>1</sup> He is freely given to all who seek him;<sup>2</sup> and, dwelling in the hearts of believers,<sup>3</sup> leads them into all truth.<sup>4</sup> By him alone the sinful heart is renewed and sanctified.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>1</sup> John xvi. 8. <sup>2</sup> Luke xi. 13. <sup>3</sup> 1 Cor. iii. 16. <sup>4</sup> John xvi. 13. <sup>5</sup> John iii. 3-6; Titus iii. 5.

OF GOOD WORKS.

All renewed souls are the workmanship of God ; but they are, thereby, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them ;<sup>1</sup> and all believers are therefore called, for the good of men,<sup>2</sup> the help of the truth,<sup>3</sup> and the glory of God,<sup>4</sup> to lead a sober, righteous, and godly life,<sup>5</sup> through the grace given unto them, and to do good unto all men as they have opportunity.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Eph. ii. 10. <sup>2</sup> Matt. v. 16. <sup>3</sup> Titus ii. 10. <sup>4</sup> John xv. 8. <sup>5</sup> Titus ii. 12. <sup>6</sup> Gal. vi. 10.

OF THE CHURCH.

There is one church on earth and in heaven :<sup>1</sup> Christ is its head ; and Christians are its members.<sup>2</sup> Baptism and the Lord's Supper are by Christ ordained its sacraments.<sup>3</sup> All true disciples of Christ may and ought to become declared members of his church, partake of its sacraments,<sup>4</sup> and labor together, with mutual love and fellowship, in its service.<sup>5</sup> It is also the privilege of believing parents to present their children for baptism in infancy.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Eph. iii. 15. <sup>2</sup> Col. i. 18. <sup>3</sup> Matt. xxviii. 19 ; Luke xxii. 19, 20. <sup>4</sup> Acts xxii. 16 ; 1 Cor. xi. 24, l. c. <sup>5</sup> Phil. i. 27. <sup>6</sup> Acts xvi. 33, l. c. ; Matt. xix. 14.

OF THE SABBATH.

The Lord's Day is set apart as a Christian Sabbath,<sup>1</sup> made for man ;<sup>2</sup> and it is the duty of all men to hallow it as a day of rest and worship.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Gen. ii. 3 ; Acts xx. 7. <sup>2</sup> Mark ii. 27. <sup>3</sup> Ex. xx. 8. Acts xx. 7.

OF THE RESURRECTION AND JUDGMENT.

There will be a resurrection of all the dead;<sup>1</sup> and God will judge all men in righteousness by Jesus Christ his Son.<sup>2</sup> The wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.<sup>3</sup>

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The foregoing Articles of Doctrine are adopted as expressing what has been and still is the essential belief of this Church.

We set them forth as the basis of administration, of fellowship, and of instruction; and we expect that the teaching of the pulpit and of the Sunday School will conform to them; that candidates for admission to the Church will be examined in regard to them, and that they and all who are young in years or in the faith will study them and receive instruction in them, both at home and under the care of the Church; and that at suitable times they will be read and explained in connection with public worship.

But we desire to administer this Church under the rule and in the spirit of Christ, and to receive to membership in it, on confession of him, those who, upon examination, give credible evidence of a new life, and of agreement with us in the substance of His doctrine. Hence we do not require, as a condition of such membership and confession, that all who apply, especially if they be young, or of limited instruction, shall completely understand or fully avow these articles.

We have therefore adopted the following form for the admission of members:

FORM OF ADMISSION.

The candidates shall present themselves before the pulpit; and the minister shall repeat one or more of the following verses of Scripture, or such others as he may choose:—

“Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for

I am meek and lowly in heart : and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

“If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.”

The minister shall then address the candidates as follows :—

DEARLY BELOVED,—You are here, before God and these witnesses, to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, and to dedicate yourselves to him in the everlasting covenant of his grace. Feeling the solemnity and blessedness of this privilege, and praying with us that he who hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ, you now unite with us in this our common

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

We believe in the one living and true God :

In the Father Almighty, Maker and Ruler of heaven and earth, who so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son for its redemption :

And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord ; who for our salvation became man, was crucified, dead and buried ; who rose from the dead, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father ; whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead :

And in the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, who spake in the Scriptures ; by whom alone we, being sinners, are renewed and sanctified ; who, with the Father and the Son, together one God, is supremely to be loved, and alone to be adored :

And in the forgiveness of sins, through repentance and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ :

And in one church of the redeemed on earth and in heaven ; in one baptism for the remission of sins ; in one communion of the body and blood of Christ :

And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life everlasting. Amen.

COVENANT.

In the presence of God, his holy angels, and these witnesses, you do now solemnly acknowledge the Lord Jehovah—the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—to be your God. Before his presence you humbly confess your guiltiness, casting yourselves upon his infinite mercy. To him you devote your supreme love ; to his service you consecrate your lives ; and, naming yourself with the name of Christ, you avow your purpose to glorify him in your body and in your spirit, which are his.

Thus you covenant ?

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever.

BAPTISM.

Baptism will now be administered to those who have never been baptized. To those who were baptized in infancy the minister shall then say,—

You who were baptized in childhood now freely accept that consecration, and assume the obligations therein implied ?

COVENANT WITH THE CHURCH.

Here those who unite by letter will rise; and for them the form of admission shall begin with the following words:—

You do now enter into covenant with this Church, to join in its work and ordinances and public worship; to submit to its rules and discipline; to labor for its growth, purity, and peace; and to walk with its members in love and faithfulness.

This you heartily promise?

The Church will rise.

We, then, the members of this Church, do joyfully receive you. We promise you our sympathies, our watchfulness, our prayers. We welcome you, in the name of Christ, to his discipleship, and to a share in the duties and privileges and glories of his Church. We greet you as fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God: heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away.

For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man: that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith: that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend, with all saints, what is the breadth and length and depth and height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

Beloved, the Lord bless you, and keep you: the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you: the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the Church, by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. AMEN.

HISTORICAL CATALOGUE OF MEMBERS.

EXPLANATION. — Of those who united previous to the pastorate of Mr. Rockwood, it has been deemed sufficient to record the names and the manner of admission, as none of them are now living. Subsequent to that time, the names of all who are known to have died have been marked with an asterisk, though accuracy is unattainable in the cases of those who have been dismissed to other churches. The letter l after a name signifies received by letter; the letter d, dismissed to other churches; the letter e, excommunicated; a dagger (†) after a name indicates that it has been removed from the list in accordance with Standing Rules II: 7, 8.
